

English

Investigating myths from the Mayan civilisation and comparing them to Cornish fables.

Narrative poetry linked to the cultures of the time.

Literacy history, understanding the plays of Shakespeare.

Mathematics

Read and interpret pie charts and line graphs.

Compare and contrast the Mayan number system and calendar.

Draw a range of shapes accurately, including internal angles .

Accurately measure ingredients to follow a traditional recipe.

Geography and History

To learn about the ancient civilisations of Central and South America in contrast to our own civilisation.

How weather and climate vary across Mexico.

Year 6 Nuevo Mundo Curriculum Pathway to Success Summer 1 2023

PSHCE

Being the Best by making positive life decisions and thinking about the consequences of actions.

Stranger danger and how to stay safe

Physical Education

Think tactically about which shot to play during a game of badminton.

Dance: create balances and movements that represent The Titanic.

Wow Moment

Planning and preparing an authentic Mayan banquet and virtually exploring ancient ruins.

Art and Design

Sculpture linked to the Mayan art in the form of soap carving.

An appreciation of tone and shadow in drawing.

Science

Animal and plant adaptation and classification linked to arid environments.

The taxonomy of key species linked to Central and south American animals.

Religious Education

People of God - how individuals have shaped their life through their religious beliefs.

Computing

Staying safe online and the hazards of social media.

Write code using Microbits to sense the environment.

Music

Charanga unit—Music and Me where we write lyrics and appraisal the work of modern female artists.